

Appendix 12-A Container Integrity and Labeling Checklist

CONTAINER INTEGRITY

- o Container is compatible with the contents (refer to Container Acceptance BOG)
- o UN markings on container meet minimum requirements of shipping description

UN Container Marking	Packing Group
X	I, II, or III
Y	II or III
Z	III only
Non-haz	not applicable

- o No leaks from the container
- o No bulged drum heads or bottoms
- o No dents in drum chimes or sides that could diminish the strength or integrity of the drum
- o No observable reaction in the contents (escaping vapors/liquids; heating; hissing, crackling, or pinging sounds; etc.)
- o General appearance good—clean and dry
- o No deep or flaking rust or corrosion that could affect the strength or integrity of the drum walls or heads
- o Gasket in good condition
- o Closing ring in place and properly engaged beneath the lip of the drum
- o Bolt properly inserted through the unthreaded lug first, locking nut is on the bolt, then the bolt is securely tightened in the threaded lug.
- o Locking nut tightened against the unthreaded lug
- o Latching lever closed and hooked under latch

LABELING AND MARKING

- o Old markings (including Hazardous Waste Marking) and DOT labels (including product labels) removed
- o Proper DOT hazard class label affixed (if contents is a hazardous material)

o